

The 2009 Secchi disk transparency results measured at the deepest point in Onondaga Lake (South Deep station). The aesthetic guidance value is used to indicate suitability for recreational use and aesthetic quality (USEPA Clean Lakes Program Guidance 2000).